

OAHU RAILWAY AND LAND CO.

Time Table

FROM AND AFTER OCTOBER 1, 1892.

TRAINS

	A.M.	P.M.	P.M.
Leave Honolulu, 6:15	8:45	1:45	4:35
Arrive Honolulu, 7:30	9:57	2:57	5:35
Leave Honolulu, 7:30	10:43	3:43	5:42
Arrive Honolulu, 8:35	11:55	4:55	6:50

PEARL CITY LOCAL

Leave Honolulu, 8:15	5:10	.....
Arrive Pearl City, 8:45	5:45	.....
Leave Pearl City, 9:15	6:15	.....
Arrive Honolulu, 9:30	6:45	.....

* Sundays excepted. † Saturdays only.

Tides, Sun and Moon.

BY C. J. LYONS.

DAY.	MOON	SUN	MOON	SUN
Mon.	4:30 a.m.	6:15 a.m.	5:15 p.m.	7:45 p.m.
Tues.	5:15 a.m.	7:00 a.m.	6:00 p.m.	8:30 p.m.
Wed.	6:00 a.m.	7:45 a.m.	6:45 p.m.	9:15 p.m.
Thurs.	6:45 a.m.	8:30 a.m.	7:30 p.m.	10:00 p.m.
Fri.	7:30 a.m.	9:15 a.m.	8:15 p.m.	10:45 p.m.
Sat.	8:15 a.m.	10:00 a.m.	9:00 p.m.	11:30 p.m.
Sun.	9:00 a.m.	10:45 a.m.	9:45 p.m.	12:15 p.m.

Full Moon April 30th at 11:30 p.m. Last quarter next week at 11:30 p.m. Time of high water at 10:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. of Honolulu time, which is the same as 12:00 p.m. of Greenwich time.

THE DAILY BULLETIN.

MONDAY, MAY 1, 1893.

MARINE NEWS.

Arrivals.

SUNDAY, April 30.
Br Sh Greta, Garland, 64 days from Newcastle.
Stur Claudine from Maui and Hawaii.
Stur Mikahala from Kauai.
Stur Kilauea from Hawaii.
Stur Laha from Maui.
Stur Kaula from Waianae and Waialua.
Stur Iwalei from Kauai.
Stur James Makoe from Kauai.

Departures.

MONDAY, May 1.
U S S Mohican, Ludlow, for Port Townsend.
Am bkne W H Dimond, Nelson, for San Francisco.
Am bk Ceylon, Calhoun, for San Francisco.
Stur J A Cummings for Koolau.
Stur Waimanalo for Molokai and Maui.
Stur Liholiho for Waimea.

Vessels Leaving To-morrow.

Stur Kaula for Kahuku and Panohulu at 9 a.m.
Stur Claudine for Maui at 5 p.m.
Stur Mikahala for Kauai at 5 p.m.
Stur Jas Makoe for Kapa at 5 p.m.
Stur C R Bishop for Kauai.
Stur Waialeale for Lahaina and Hanalei.
Stur Iwalei for Makaweli at 5 p.m.

Cargoes from Island Ports.

Stur Claudine—6700 bags sugar, 120 bags potatoes, 30 bags corn, 3 horses, 51 bags, 25 hides, 67 feet kua lumber, 140 pigs sundries.
Stur Mikahala—5577 bags sugar, 30 bags pigs, 15 bags taro, 35 bundles hides, 1 horse, 75 pigs sundries.
Stur Kilauea—1000 bags sugar, 40 head cattle.
Stur Iwalei—4841 bags sugar.
Stur Jas Makoe—2550 bags sugar.

Passengers.

ARRIVALS.
From Kauai, per Stur Mikahala, April 30—E. P. Bishop, Miss Anna Christian, David Trask, Frank Archer, Sam Wo, C A Tong, wife and 3 children, Chee Horp, wife and 3 children, and 35 deck.
From Maui and Hawaii, per Stur Claudine, April 30—C E Cook, Mrs J Garlick, W Kaal, Mrs Joseph, W F Pogue, H R Hitchcock, C M Walton, E H Bailey, H Beche and wife, Mrs Scholz, Mrs J Lyons, B Lyons, Jno Kalama, H G Boswell, Jno Kalama, Mr Dekun, S Kapono, W B Keau, Thos Clark, J Keolu, E Heleku, A Eider, J W Kahu and wife, M J Cockett, C F Horner, A Pali, and 32 deck.

SANITARY PRECAUTIONS.

Rules for the Prevention of Cholera Entering the United States.

The report of the committee appointed by the conference of State Boards of Health to devise a plan for uniform interstate inspection in case of a cholera epidemic was made to the conference at New York and finally passed, after being somewhat amended. The rules provide that in case of an outbreak of cholera a medical inspector shall be on each train, and in case of any symptoms of the disease being developed on route, he shall provide for the isolation of suspects in a single car. In case of actual disease the car shall be isolated at some way station. Special cars are to be provided for all passengers leaving an infected district. According to the resolutions, ordinary merchandise, and even mails, do not require disinfection. In the case of baggage, however, and articles of wearing apparel, it is provided that they shall be thoroughly disinfected. Similar rules are to be formulated, covering lake, river and other means of transportation, and an amendment was added, requiring that railroad companies shall provide a system of disinfecting train closets.

The most painful cases of rheumatism may be relieved by a few applications of Chamberlain's Pain Balm; its continued use will cure any case, no matter of how long standing. It is equally beneficial for lame back, pain in the side, pain in the chest, lameness, and in all painful affections requiring an external remedy. A piece of flannel saturated with Pain Balm and bound over the seat of pain is superior to any plaster. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

A reward is offered for a lost shawl.
Admiral Skerrett's flag is flying on the U. S. cruiser Boston.

Captain Rosehill is clerk at the Police Station vice W. A. Hardy.
Mr. Arthur Johnstone, late reporter of the Star, is now editor of the Advertiser.

Dr. B. Schneider, veterinary surgeon and dentist, has his office at the Club Stables.

The mounted patrol has been reduced to half the original number to cut down expenses.

The Hawaii and Kamehameha will meet on the diamond on Saturday. Look out for a good game.

Mr. George Lyeurgus has taken charge of the Hotel Park Annex, and will run it as a seaside hotel.
Information is wanted of the whereabouts of Annie B. Mahoney, formerly of Prince Edward Island.

The regular monthly meeting of the Pioneer Building & Loan Association will take place this evening.

The wrestling match which was to have taken place this evening between J. Spencer and U. Jones has been postponed.

A quartet of "antiques and horrors" on a wagon this afternoon with tomcats attracted a large crowd of people on the street.

A young native lad of seven summers and his left foot crushed yesterday morning by the wheels of a wagon owned by Pedro.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Mr. Frank J. Kruger and Miss Helen Rose to take place next Thursday evening.

Seats who have come to the town fair their parts will find a welcome at the regular weekly meeting of the Thistle Club this evening.

There will be no concert by the P. G. band at Emma Square this evening, as it will be engaged at the Portuguese festival this evening.

On Tuesday evening, May 9th, Mr. Wray Taylor will give an organ concert at Kaunakapili church, when a choice program will be presented.

There are only five natives who have signed the annexation roll on the whole island of Molokai. They hold minor offices in the Government service.

The residence of Mrs. Chas. Kibling on Punchbowl was entered on Saturday evening while the family were at the fair. Everything in the house was ransacked, but nothing of value was taken.

The U. S. S. Mohican weighed anchor shortly after 2 o'clock this afternoon for the Sound. She was seen to drift and got stuck on the reef. At four o'clock the Mohican got off and she steamed out the passage.

Mrs. J. Neal celebrated her sixty-second birthday with an enjoyable lay-out at her residence on King street, Saturday evening. A few invited guests were present, who all wished her many happy returns of her natal day.

Complaints have been made by native residents at Palama that G. Markham, signed their names to the annexation roll himself without their knowledge or consent. Two of these residents are engaged in the offices of the annexation organs.

Two men, Lui and Gabriela, were arrested between 10 and 11 o'clock Saturday night for selling spirituous liquors without license. Five dozen bottles of beer were captured. Yesterday afternoon two Japs were caught on Maunakea street, trying their hands at the game.

HAWAIIAN PATRIOTIC LEAGUE.

Delegates From the Other Islands Meet in Arion Hall.

About thirty delegates of the Hawaiian Patriotic League from the different islands in the group arrived by steamers yesterday to take part in a convention to-day. At 10 o'clock this morning the convention met in Arion Hall. The place was crowded with Hawaiians interested in the matter.

The meeting was called to order by Jos. Nawahi, President of the League, who in a few appropriate remarks welcomed the delegates from the other islands. J. A. Cummings, honorary president, also made a few remarks, hoping that the business they had to transact would be pleasantly done, and that their aim—the restoration of the Queen—would be promoted.

A. P. Pachaole responded for the delegates, thanking the presidents for their welcome. Their feelings were well-known to all and it would be redundant to say more than to thank them for their reception.

Three different memorials for presentation to Commissioner Blount, against annexation and for the restoration of the monarchy, were laid before the convention. A committee consisting of J. E. Bush, Honolulu; Thos. Clark, Waialua; S. H. Kahukula, Kohala; J. A. Akina, Waianae; Kauai; and J. Kapono, Honolulu, Maui, were elected to merge the principal ideas of the memorials into one and report later to the meeting.

In the meantime, while the committee were considering the resolutions, speeches were made by L. W. P. Kanehale, A. P. Pachaole and J. K. Kanehale on the question of the day. The gist of their remarks was that the restoration of the Hawaiian monarchy and the flag to the people of the land was most desirable. The restoration meant that the natives would have a say in their own country, whereas, as it is now, they were not allowed that privilege, the boon of freedom. When the committee were ready to report the hall was cleared, and the resolution for presentation to Commissioner Blount was considered in secret session.

PROVISIONAL LEGISLATURE.

To-day's Session of the Executive and Advisory Councils.

The regular semi-weekly meeting of the Executive and Advisory Councils was held this afternoon. Present: Ministers Dole (President), King, Porter and Smith; Counsellors Damon (Vice-President), Emmeluth, Allen, Waterhouse, Brown, Suhr, Young, McChesney, Nott, Morgan, Bolte, Tenney and Wilder.
Mr. Waterhouse asked for further time for the committee on the bill relating to street signs and house numbers.
Mr. Brown on leave withdrew the bill.
Minister Porter submitted the regular weekly statement of the treasury, containing the following items:

In hand last report, $79,210.41.
Receipts from bonds, $7000.
Receipts from general revenue, $16,851.50.
General expenses, $16,656.87.
Balance in hand, $86,435.44.
Outstanding accounts due by treasury, $51,000.
Due on P. M. G.'s notes, $155,000.
Treasury notes overdue, $8000; P. M. G.'s notes, $130,000; total, $138,000.

Due treasury from Postal Savings Bank, $37,521.36.
Notices of withdrawals from P. S. B., running to June 31, $57,484.
Total deposits, P. S. B., $524,108.48.
Notices maturing this date, $23,876. A large amount, it was explained, had not been called for when notices matured.

Excess of deposits over withdrawals for week, $146.42.
Excess of deposits over deposits for April, $12,675.56.
Cash in hand, P. S. B., $3754.88.
Expenses Provisional Government to date, $54,751.53; during week nothing.

Paid to date, Sec. 2, Appropriation Bill, $140,000.
Outstanding against Sec. 2, $47,000.
Cash in treasury to redeem silver certificates, $312,000.
Road Board fund in treasury, $10,632.41.
School Board fund in treasury, $128.

Total cash in treasury, $439,195.85.
Mr. Allen from the committee on the Washington Ministry reported, recommending that Minister J. Mott Smith be recalled and that the Government appoint a reply from Mr. Thurston before appointing his successor.

President Dole submitted a request from Col. Soper for an appropriation of $428 to pay for adapting the field pieces for drawing by horses. After some discussion, in which it was stated that the limbers were too heavy for hand power, the item was approved.

A discussion on uniforms resulted in the matter being referred on motion to the military committee, with power to procure the necessary uniforms on the best terms possible.

The bill to appropriate $1322.50 for balance due on special election expenses of 1892 was read.

Attorney-General Smith moved that the bill pass, as it had been explained already. He gave the items yet unpaid.

Mr. Brown objected to the paying of legal expenses of election officers who are prosecuted for alleged illegality.

The Attorney-General showed the hardships of both cases (Mr. Barnard of Laupaloehoe and Mr. J. W. Smith of Ewa).

Mr. Brown insisted that the payment of the bills would be a bad precedent.

Mr. Damon thought the Government should stand by men who gave it their services. When they came round to have elections again (laughter) it would be hard to get officers to serve if they were not sure of being protected.

Mr. Young seconded the motion to pass the bill, which carried.

First reading of bill to regulate the publication of newspapers.

The Attorney-General moved that a section be added providing that the act take effect from the date of publication.

Mr. Brown asked if the name of every stockholder in a newspaper corporation was required to be published.

Minister Smith said not.

Mr. Wilder asked if the bill did not affect the sale of foreign newspapers.

Minister Smith said the clause in question was added at the suggestion of a brother member of the bar. He feared it was objectionable and moved the clause be struck out. Carried.

Mr. Emmeluth wondered at the necessity of passing this long act, to reach one particular paper, with the section act under their eyes. There was scarcely an issue of the Honolulu which did not contain matter that contravened the section act.

The Attorney-General gave other reasons for the passage of this act, which had come up in litigation over the property of a newspaper.

Passed to second reading.

First reading of an act to amend Chapter 48 of the Penal Code, relating to the accumulation of arms and ammunition for purposes of riot or insurrection.

Mr. Emmeluth moved that the rules be suspended and the bill relating to newspapers be brought up for second reading.

Minister Smith opposed the motion, which was lost.

Mr. Emmeluth moved a resolution that agitation in favor of the restoration of the monarchy be declared as coming under the terms of the section act.

Mr. Waterhouse moved that the resolution pass. It was high time to take action when treason was being conducted under their noses. Here were natives coming from other islands to agitate for restoration, and receiving encouragement from the queen, who told them to have hope and courage.

Mr. Emmeluth held that as annexation was the object for which this Provisional Government was formed, it should be regarded as treason for anybody to discuss restoration or an independent republic.

It would be only justice to the ignorant Hawaiians to give a clear expression of the Government on this matter. He related an instance of subordination among the natives. A Hawaiian neighbor of his died after four days' illness, and his widow asked the speaker what her late husband had done that the Government people should have done that to him.

Mr. Young was one who would go the farthest toward toleration, but he believed Mr. Emmeluth was right in the main. It was time they knew whether they were a government or not.

Minister Smith said the question had come before him in requests for advice from sheriffs. The Government should deal with the matter cautiously, as there was danger of going too far. Peaceful discussion of the situation he did not think came within the category of sedition. It was certainly lawful under the constitution.

Mr. Brown counseled going slow. Mr. Blount was sent here, it was understood, to ascertain the sentiment of the Hawaiian people, and nothing should be done to obstruct his investigation. Hawaiians loved their flag above everything else. They were like children. If they could retain their flag they would not think much about the loss of the monarchy. Were the monarch of the Kamehameha line it might be different. As it was, he thought only a few in Honolulu were wanting restoration, and these because they believed in that event they should come on top.

Mr. Emmeluth was not for suppressing those who were misled, but those who were misleading the Hawaiians.

Mr. Damon thought if the Government was weak it ought to jump on any movement looking toward restoration. The freedom of speech and of the press was favorable to safety. The Government surely had sufficient standing by this time to be past the necessity for extreme measures.

Mr. Young withdrew his motion to pass, and the resolution was referred to the Executive Council.

The Council went into executive session at 3:35.

COURT CHRONICLE.

Opening of May Term of First Circuit Court.

At 10 o'clock this morning Judge Cooper opened the May term of the Circuit Court of the First Judicial Circuit.

Most of the forenoon was occupied in calling the calendar. In a goodly number of cases the answer was "ready."

Ah Ling Nui, who stole jewels from the residence of Mr. W. C. Wilder, pleaded guilty to larceny in the second degree. He was promptly sentenced to two years' imprisonment at hard labor and to pay $1 fine.

A discontinuance was noted in the appeal of plaintiff from Justice Bickerton at chambers, in the case of Mary Keomakani vs. Annie Reist—replevin for an ice chest that had been raffled. Kane for plaintiff appellant; Magoon for defendant.

Provisional Government vs. Kadli, Assault and battery. Appeal from District Court, Honolulu. Tied by a native jury this afternoon. Verdict not guilty, three dissenting. G. K. Wilder, Deputy Attorney-General, for prosecution; C. Wrighton for defendant. Defendant was fined $50 in the Court below for assault and battery on Officer Sheehan at the hotel landing.

The Justices of the Supreme Court have issued an order citing S. H. Kalamake, District Magistrate of Waialua, Oahu, to appear before the Court on Friday, 5th inst., and show cause why he should not be dismissed from office pending charges for malfeasance.

J. W. Luning has filed a complaint against C. H. Wetmore, correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, claiming $5000 damages for wrongful arrest. The correspondent was stopped under the passport law from taking passage on the steamer Australia, by Luning in the capacity of a collector. Wetmore had him arrested on a charge of representing himself as a collector of customs, but on trial in the District Court Luning was acquitted.

A. G. Correa, attorney, is threatened with process for disbarring him under a charge of having helped Mrs. Ramos out of the jurisdiction of the Court while under writ of habeas corpus to produce her child and order to show cause for not being adjudged guilty of contempt.

Ireland's Wealth.

It is not easy to ascertain with precision the total amount of Irish capital, the fund which sets in motion whatever of commerce, trade, industry and employment exists in the island, but "Fionn's Almanac" helps us to form a very fair estimate. The total valuation is $1,140,000,000; value of crops, $233,000,000; value of horses, cattle, sheep and pigs, $730,000,000; capital of joint-stock banks, $10,000,000; deposits in joint-stock banks and savings banks, $35,000,000; investments in Government stock transferable at Bank of Ireland, $31,000,000; stock and share capital, etc., of railway companies, $36,000,000; fisheries, $1,000,000. Total—$2,233,000,000.—London St. James Gazette.

While Mr. T. J. Richey, of Vienna, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

The Woman's Board of Mission will meet at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in the Central Union Church. Meeting of committee at 2 o'clock.

"LUNING THE COLLECTOR."

Files a Suit for $5000 Damages Against a Vandalic Correspondent.

Mr. J. W. Luning, "the man you meet every day," was in the District Court Saturday morning to answer to a charge of "obstructing and perverting justice" on April 26th, by falsely assuming to be a customs collector or officer of the Government.

C. H. Wetmore, correspondent of the Chicago Tribune, stated in evidence that on Wednesday last about 10 o'clock he was seized in his cottage on Garden Lane, when the defendant came in and said that Jones had stopped the passenger, and that he came to collect $25. The Luning said that he was a collector of customs. The witness then paid the money and Mr. Luning departed. Inquiry at the Customs House elicited the information that Luning was not a customs officer.

Mr. W. W. Naughton, correspondent of the S. F. Examiner, who was present at the time, states that he had heard Luning say collector, but whether he used the word "customs" or not he could not say. At the wheel, previous to the departure of the S. S. Australia, he had heard Luning reply, in answer to a query from Wetmore as to whether he was a customs collector, in the affirmative.

Mr. Luning in defense stated that he had never used the word "customs." He had only said "Luning the collector." It was true he was asked at the wheel whether he was a customs collector, and he replied that he was, but on finding that his reply was taken in earnest, he had immediately disavowed it.

Police Magistrate Foster this morning gave judgment discharging Luning.

Mr. Luning brought a suit this afternoon against C. H. Wetmore, claiming $5000 damages.

Captain Selckenman went out with the warrant but failed to find Wetmore, and was told he was on the U. S. S. Mohican. The officer then took a boat and went out to the Mohican. He sent the boatman on board to ask Wetmore to come down, as a Chinaman wanted him. Wetmore in reply told the boatman to tell the Chinaman to come up. Wetmore is still on board.

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say 'A' for Alphabet?" "Because he began it with 'A' for Alphabet," said Haskins. "I would have begun it with 'L' for Larky's Alphabet."

Very Larky—The inventor of the alphabet must have been a modest man, said Haskins. "Why say '